MURDER OF AMERICANS STIRS U. S.

HORNER NOT TO SUCCEED CAMPBELL

Governor Says He Understands Man He Wanted Is Not Available

Setting at rest the rumor that has been heard frequently during the last few weeks, and which seemed to have the earmarks of official sanction, that Albert Horner was slated to become the successor of Marston Campbell as superintendent of public works, Governor Pease today said he understood Horner would be unavailable.

Asked if an appointment to the vacancy left by Campbell's resignation had been made the executive replied in the negative. When informed of the talk that has been current on the street concerning the likelihood of Horner's appointment, he said:

"While Mr. Horner is thoroughly equipped to handle the duties of the position, and would be eminently acceptable to me, I understand that his attention is so much taken by his private business affairs that he would be unable to take the office."

"The fact that he is unavailable is a source of regret to me, for I would like to have him in the office."

Whether this announcement comes as the result of conference between the Governor and Horner is unknown. It is known, however, that the Governor has been very friendly since Horner's return from the mainland, and that several private conferences between the two have been held in the Governor's office during the last few days.

Hawaii's Commission on Uniform Laws is urged to attend the Conference of the Commission on Uniform State Laws, which is to meet in Milwaukee August 21 to 25. A communication from the officials of that body has been received by Governor Pease. They ask that the commission be permitted to attend, and it is impossible otherwise that the Governor recommend that the best legislative representatives of the members by a special appropriation at the next session.

Korean Suitor of Chinese Girl Is Given Another Jolt

Father of Damsel Goes Unpunished for Shooting at Gallant Who Hid in Barn

Owing to lack of sufficient evidence, Ah Soong, father of See May Soong, and charged by Kim Paw, suitor of See May Soong, with assault with a deadly weapon, was released from custody this morning. When the alleged shots were fired, the complaining witness was hiding in the innermost recesses of Ah Soong's barn, according to the testimony, and he did not come out again until Ah Soong, Mr. Ah Soong and See May Soong had retired for the night.

According to the evidence, Kim Paw, armed with a marriage license and an automobile, and accompanied by two friends, presented himself at

SENATE INSTRUCTS CONFEREES NOT TO COMPROMISE ON BILL

(Special Cable to Star-Bulletin)

WASHINGTON, D. C., August 1.—Every indication now is that there will be no sugar legislation during the present session of Congress. The House contends that the reductions made by the Senate in its substitute for the free sugar bill are insignificant, while the Senate flatly refuses to go lower. A virtual agreement has been reached to postpone further action until next winter.

The Senate today appointed Senators Penrose of Pennsylvania, Lodge of Massachusetts, Bailey of Texas, Bristow of Kansas, and Simmons of North Carolina as the Senate conferees. The Senate definitely instructed this conference against a compromise with the House committee, and to protect its own substitute bill, the Lodge-Bristow amendment.

C. S. ALBERT.

"GET TOGETHER" AD CLUB SLOGAN

"Get together" was the slogan sounded by some sixty or seventy businessmen who assembled at the Ad Club lunch in the Rathskeller this noon to hear what Alexander Hume Ford had to offer on the scheme of a Civic or Chamber of Commerce building.

President W. R. Farrington of the Ad Club gave the guests some idea of what the Ad Club is by reading Herbert Hubbard's latest on the "Ad-man's Philosophy." The session was then turned over to Mr. Ford, who briefly outlined his ideas, which had been reduced to print and called on Mr. W. O. Smith, representing the Bishop Estate, which owns the property opposite the Young Hotel. Mr. Smith referred to the need for having an authority in the city that would result in a building of which the city would feel proud through all generations.

Mr. W. A. Bowen, Rev. Mr. Smith, Mr. Rivenburgh, D. How, and Hitchcock and Mr. H. L. Kerr were among the speakers who seconded the motion of getting together for the welfare of Honolulu. The Ad Club is strict in its rule of not allowing the session of the club to last more than one hour and adjournment was taken promptly on time. All those with ideas on the subject could not be heard, but there was sufficient enthusiasm to show that the atmosphere is well charged with the "get together" spirit on this particular project.

FRENCH TO AID DR. SILVESTRI

All the courtesies of the government in French West Africa will be extended to Dr. Silvestri, the entomologist, who has been sent into that country by Hawaii on a search of a parasite enemy of the Mediterranean fruit fly.

This information is contained in a communication received by Governor Pease this morning from the State Department at Washington, stating that the French government has forwarded such instructions by telegraph to the Governor General of French West Africa. Similar courtesies already have been ordered by the home governments of Great Britain and Germany for Dr. Silvestri's benefit during his visit to their provinces in Africa.

BLOW ON HEAD, NOT SCORPION BITE, KILLED BABE

A post-mortem examination of the body of the infant daughter of Chun Kim Suk, made this morning by Deputy Sheriff Ross, disclosed a four-inch fracture of the baby's skull. The baby died late yesterday afternoon at the sick children's hospital and at the time the parents and relatives of the child declared it had died from a scorpion sting.

According to the parents, a large scorpion crawled beneath the child's clothing and stung it repeatedly upon the chest before it was discovered. The baby was then taken to the hospital and died a few hours later.

Chun Kim Suk, the father, was arrested and locked up at the police station and will be held pending the inquest tonight.

ATKINSON NOW ON THE SCENE

A. L. C. Atkinson, sent by local Progressives to Chicago to gain representation in the convention if possible, has reached the Windy City, according to a cablegram received by George R. Carter this morning. Atkinson hadn't had time to get any "dope" on the situation, but later advice is expected at any time.

E. L. Kauai was added to the Progressives' provisional committee this morning.

Chairman Carter said that the mail brought much encouraging news regarding the strides the Progressives are making on the mainland.

SLIPS ON FLOOR TILES, LEG MAY BE BROKEN

James S. Fox, who resides at the corner of Kanaina and Duval streets, met with a painful accident this afternoon, which will probably keep him on crutches for some time to come.

Mr. Fox, while descending the steps that lead to the basement and barber shop of the Young Hotel, lost his footing on the mosaic flooring below the stairway, and fell heavily. It is thought that he fractured his right leg just above the ankle.

Atkinson Wins; Will Be Delegate

(Special Star-Bulletin Cable)

CHICAGO, Ill., Aug. 1.—Senator Dixon, manager of the Progressive campaign, has promised that Hawaii shall have a delegate to the Progressive convention here, as well as national committeeman. He opposes, however, representation by any of the U. S. possessions. The credentials committee will meet on Saturday.

A. L. C. ATKINSON.

The above cablegram was received last afternoon by the Star-Bulletin from A. L. C. Atkinson, who is in Chicago to attend the Progressive convention. It shows that he has won the point demanded by local Progressives, of representation for Hawaii, to which Senator Dixon has been opposed.

G. H. FAIRCHILD BACK TO PACK FOR FAR EAST

Expects to Leave Within Month to Begin Life in Philippine Capital

Under a shower of glad hands and hearty "home" greetings, Senator George H. Fairchild, who returned in the Korea, told a Star-Bulletin reporter who met him at Pease and Marston streets about his intended departure for Manila, where he will in the future aid in the development of the Philippines, as hitherto he has participated in the advancement of Hawaii.

Mr. Fairchild stated that he was going to Manila in about a month, as manager of the new firm of Welch, Fairchild & Havemeyer, his partners being well-known sugar magnates of the mainland.

"The business of the house will be that of sugar factors," Mr. Fairchild said. "It will be a general agency, which will take over the control of all of Welch and Havemeyer's interests in the Philippines. They have one plantation there now, an estate of 55,000 acres."

Rules Require U. S. Soldiers To Wear Misfit Uniforms

Enlisted Men Forbidden to Have Their Clothes Made to Order

Any enlisted man in the United States army who has a uniform that fits him is guilty of a breach of the regulations in wearing the same, unless it is one which was issued to him and happened to fit him, according to the strictest interpretation of the regulations.

Inspector-General Bell called attention to the "misfit" regulation when, following an inspection at Schofield Barracks, he reported three men who had their uniforms made to order by a tailor and so presented a neat and trim appearance. This in comparison to their comrades, who appeared in the sleeping bag uniforms designed by a celebrated English tailor for a fee of $25.00 and which are guaranteed to fit every man with a tailor-made uniform and so it was deemed better to clothe the army in "misfits" and so avoid comparisons.

In the British army ready-made uniforms are not issued to the men. The recruit is given the cloth, buttons and trimmings and carries them to the regimental tailor, who thereon makes a uniform to fit him. In consequence the British army as a whole presents a trim and neat appearance which is lacking in the American army.

As a matter of fact, it is said that the United States army cannot be said to have any regular uniform. Since 1898 the War Department has been fussing with the uniform question, making changes in color and cloth every few months, with the result that in some regiments, but few soldiers are dressed alike and it is a common thing to see an enlisted man with blouse and trousers of different colors. There seems to be no fixed rule as to the kind of leggings to be worn either. Five soldiers from a transport bound for the Philippines were seen on the streets the day they landed here, each one wearing a different pattern of leggings and each one boasting a different combination of colors in his uniform.

MANY GOOD MEN BEING SUGGESTED

Suggestions of many names have been accepted and are being considered. The committee does not intend to

SCREEN LAW UPHELD; WILL BE ENFORCED

Merchants Must Comply with Ordinance, Say Health Officials

Following the opinion handed down by the Supreme Court yesterday afternoon, which upheld the constitutionality of county ordinance No. 50, the health and sanitation committee is preparing to enforce the measure and to prosecute all merchants on the public markets who do not keep their meats, fish and other commodities screened from flies.

"We propose beginning a campaign toward a strict enforcement of the screening law, now that the Supreme Court has handed down an opinion upon the important question," so declared Chairman Kruger, of the Supervisory health and sanitation committee, this morning.

If the stall keepers at the city market fail to observe the letter of the ordinance as passed months ago by the Board of Supervisors it is up to us to see that they are punished as all lawbreakers should be.

Roosevelt Looks to South

(Associated Press Cable)

OYSTER BAY, Mass., Aug. 1.—President Roosevelt is looking to the South to furnish him a running mate.

There is a strong movement on foot among the Progressives, who believe to have the Colonel's active support, to name a Progressive Southern Democrat for Vice-President at the Chicago convention. That was admitted yesterday by Col. Roosevelt himself.

Leading supporters of Roosevelt say they hope to break up the Wilson's strength by this move, as well as to capture what votes Taft might expect from the South.

While in Boston, the Y. M. C. A. secretary had a long interview with the Vocational Guidance authority and discussed various problems which the system strives to solve. Special reference was made to Hawaii, where, the secretary explained, there was a new generation of mixed races, children of many nationalities who were receiving no special training for any one line of work and would be forced to shift for themselves as best they could upon attaining maturity.

The head of the Vocational Guidance bureau expressed much interest and declared that he would try to come to Hawaii some time during the year and would then study the local situation with the end in view
